E. F. Lyster went to Tillamook to-day to get materials for a new school house, which is to be built upon G. W. Wallace's farm.

Several settlers on Beaver creek have enclosed their gardens with picket fences, which makes a home look much more tidy than the old worm fence.

Mr. John Bush is clearing up the road in front of his house, which is a good example to set.

Mart. Bush has sweet corn four inches high.

Miss Lida Ely has just recovered from a severe attack of La grippe. She is still at Forest Grove taking music lessons.

George Brock, late of South Prairie expects to move from Washington county about the middle of May, to the state of Washington, with his daughter and her family.
