

Beaver.

Henry A. Ely is home again, getting ready for haying.

No more sheep missing since G. W. Wallace killed the panther.

Mr. Allen, whose ranch lies near Cedar bridge had his leg cut with a double-bitted axe last week.

School commenced in the Wallace school-house on June 30, J. C. Norris, of Nestucca, as teacher.

The dance at the Wallace school-house was a pleasant one. A new stove and other useful furniture prove that some good was done by it.
