

BIG NESTUCCA.

The road supervisors are opening some new roads.

There have been no tramps, Chinamen, book-agents or peddlers here lately.

The people are utilizing the fine weather and getting their fall work done up.

The people of Big Nestucca are enjoying a reasonable amount of health, happiness and prosperity this fall.

There has been no syndicates or trusts formed for the purpose of cornering the honey market, but honey in this section of country has been very high since the passage of the McKinley bill.

The principal improvements, at Woods, this summer, were made by Joseph Wood, R. T. Weatherly, W. D. Priestly and Wm. Booth. John Krebs is having his residence finished up in good style. It will be one of the best houses in the town.

The principal architects and builders, in this section, are G. W. Steele and Lester Ray. The leading lumbermen, Krebs Bros. Leading merchants, Phelps and Findley. The boss salesman W. R. Robedee. The leading physician Dr. Linton. The principal agriculturists are A. Compton, R. Allen, A. T. Bain and G. W. Bodyselt.

HAWKEYE.