

Dolph.

Mr. Carry, our new merchant, has put in a large stock of new goods.

Mrs. Carry is very sick.

J. Hill has moved to Willamina.

Mr. Baxter has finished the bridge and his road is in good condition for traveling.

Mrs. Baxter's broken arm is mending slowly.

G. T. Baxter has returned from Salem after an absence of about six months. We are glad to see him in our midst again.

Election is over. It went off quietly.

Fine weather for growing grass, and the gardens look well after the warm rains.

Bees are making plenty honey.

Mrs. E. Werner had nine large swarms of bees last month.

Mr. Page, our mail-carrier will soon be making his last trip. Who will be our next?
