

DOLPH.

A great many wagon loads of fish have passed through this place from Big and Little Nestucca, this fall, but the fishing season is about over now.

We are having some fine fall weather and the stock in this section is all in good condition.

Noah Hill was accidentally shot by Jesse Landingham, while out hunting the other day. The ball passed through his foot inflicting a painful but not dangerous wound.

Mrs. Norman, of Dayton Wash., is visiting her father, H. Hill of this place. She had not seen him before in fourteen years.

Mrs. Galland has returned from Portland where she has been visiting friends.

E. P. Werner has returned from a trip to the Cascades.

Mrs. Stackman and daughter Florence, have returned home to Albany, after a five weeks visit with Mrs. E. Werner.

Miss Alice Cary has returned home from Sheridan.

Miss L. Shortridge is attending school at Sheridan.