The water runs up-stream about half of the time.

Messrs. Brock and Simmons are building large barns.

A. D. Sanders was quite sick, but is improving under the care of Dr. Imann.

The people had a picnic on the island at Sand Lake on the 4th, which was a very enjoyable affair.

The dance at Krebs' hall at Woods on the Fourth was a grand success. We saw one young lady come home without her partner. We learn that she left him by the road-side filled with Pollard's best.
