

HEBO.

HEBO, Dec. 1st.

O. A. Willey of Dayton has moved onto his ranch on Three Rivers. Mr. Willey is a rustler and the way he is making the old logs disappear is a caution. That's right parson "get in."

We had the pleasure of listening to a good sermon last Sunday, delivered by Rev. C. A. Willey who has located in our midst, and whom we hope will look after the spiritual welfare of the community.

A disease resembling scarlet fever in a mild form is prevalent in this vicinity, and some children are seriously ill at present.

L. Jensen is putting a coat of rustic on his house and making other substantial improvements.

H. H. Hollaway has just completed his new residence, which is both substantial and commodious.

A. T. Bain visited his [bee-ranch on Three Rivers last week.

Krebs Bro's. are making active preparations to start a logging camp on Wm. Rhoades' place next week.

H. Dimmick has returned to his ranch on Nestucca,

A Christmas tree is the predominant topic for discussion here at present.
