

G. H. Page, of Nestucca, was in the city yesterday, and left at the Statesman office some very fine specimens of potatoes of the Burbank and Daling varieties and some very nice onions. They were raised at Nestucca and speak loudly in praise of the resources of that section.