

A covey of chinese pheasants have been seen in the Nestucca country, and if the hunters let them alone for a season or so, there will be good shooting in that section.

About 20,000 salmon were caught at Nestucca this season, most of which were hauled to the Willamette valley and sold in the fish-markets or peddled to the farmers.