

Oretown.

Crops going in.

Spring days, warm rains.

Grass growing and stock looking grate-
therefor.

V. Suttan has sold his place to A. W.
Fletcher.

School is now open with A. J. Shepard
at the helm.

Wild geese and trout are plenty. Come and enjoy the sport.

A new hotel is soon to be started with
C. Christenson's smiling face at the desk.

F. Scherzinger is packing salmon that he salted last fall, ready for shipment
by first steamer.

New faces appear daily, land in demand and plenty of it to be had on which anything can be raised

WANTED.—100 families of workers, to take advantage of the chance now open to settle here in the Little Nestucca
country.

G. H. Page, our mail carrier has started his stage between this place and Grand Ronde, carrying freight and passengers. We appreciate his pluck. T.
