

COUNTY CORRESPONDENCE.

SAND LAKE.

Mr. Morgan Summers is caring for Mr. Brioda's family in their affliction.

T. J. Harris is home again and at work on his house and barn at Sand Lake.

The latest find along the beach is candles; they are No. one and bitra without a sputter.

Mrs. T. J. Harris with the help of Job and Cinda caught at one haul of the net twenty-one fine trout and nine silver-side salmon.

Mr. A. Krogstad has gone to Toledo, Benton Co., to attend to his mill business we all hope he will sell out and make his home at the cape.

Along the beach four rows of breakers tell the condition of the ocean's surface this morning while the breezes are as refreshing and the sky is as clear and the air as pure as any day in June.

O. R. Chamberlain has gone to be a witness at Oregon City on the widow Lawrence's pre-emption. His wife accompanied him, they will take in the exposition and visit their parents and friends at Vancouver, Wash.

The surveyors left for the south this morning, at least Messers. Brown and Taylor, who we understand have been employed to correct some of the stakes or finish some of the work, and now we suppose that soon some of the squatters in this region will be permitted to the exalted relationship of Homesteaders.

A few days ago E. A. Chamberlain killed another bear. X.Y.Z.
