

A view of Haystack rock near the mouth of the Nestucca river, as seen from the road on the hills back of Woods, is truly grand. The rock is said to be over 300 feet high and stands about three furlongs from shore in the breakers.