

The mail is now brought through from North Yamhill by pack-horse, there not being snow enough on the mountains to interfere with travel.