

BEAR CREEK.

B. H. Bunn and family have gone to Tillamook to spend the holidays.

Mr. Shultson is busy building a house.

Santa Claus appeared in person among some of the Beaver children, which was such a surprise that some of them catch their breath yet while trying to describe him.

Between twenty-five ladies and gentlemen attended a Christmas dance at the Wallace school-house. A tent was set up with a stove and tables, and a bed for the babies. An excellent supper was served at midnight and everybody was well pleased. The dance lasted until 7:00 A. M.

The Bear Creek road has been greatly improved by volunteer work by Messrs. Wallace, Burrow, Robinson, Martin, Elys and Lyster. It is ~~fairly~~ fair to
