

BEAVER.

Strawberries gone, huckleberries growing red.

Al. Bunn is building an addition to his barn. So also, is E. F. Lyster.

Miss Blanche Sturgeon has only term scholars so far. All seem to like their teacher. Parents say their children are getting on remarkably well.

Miss Eva Johnson was quite frightened on her last trip to Beaver Creek by a dog belonging to Mr. Henry Peters, springing at her as she passed by on horse-back. He tore her riding skirt and nearly pulled her off her horse. (Such a dog should be kept chained.)

A valuable colt of G. W. Wallace's was badly hurt last week, by jumping a picket fence. One of the picket entered the body back of the fore legs. Fortunately the picket broke, or the wound would have been more dangerous. It is getting on as well as could be expected.
