

BEAVER.

Mrs. Simonson of Astoria, is here visiting her daughter, Mrs. Shultson.

G. W. Wallace and E. F. Lyster had nearly all their cattle dehorned last Thursday; James Squires performing the operations.

The Nestucca is so high as to be dangerous to Cross. A bridge is needed very much there.

Dick Quick and wife have gone to live on Mr. Steinhilber's place, Dick having engaged to do some slashing for Mr. Steinhilber.