

BEAVER.

A baby girl arrived last week at the home of Mr. Shultson. Mother and child doing well.

Dan Nickels of Bear Creek lost two boats, one of them loaded with lumber, in the storm on Monday of last week.

A family of Swedes have settled on a claim just below Otto Johnson's, on Beaver Creek, and during the late storm, the lady of the house, while out after an armful of wood, narrowly escaped death from a falling tree, its two forks passing on each side, leaving her unhurt between them.
