

While severe snow storms are prevalent East, we have weather like spring, grass growing and wild flowers in bloom.

There was an oyster supper and a play party at Wm. Rhoades' last Friday night which was largely attended, and universally enjoyed by all present.

It is rumored there is to be a shooting match at Jasper Smith's place, Feb. 22. Come every body and get a share of the forty head of geese that are to be shot for.

Mrs. Geo. Nelson has been quite sick for some time but is now reported better.

Jas. Sloan is visiting his parents at Forest Grove.

A. T. Bain is visiting at Woods at present, but will be back on his ranch soon.

It is reported that A. B. Pollard of Woods has bought a place on Alder creek.

W. A. Graves, of this place who a short time ago secured a position as railway mail distributor, is running on the U. P. making his headquarters at Cheyenne, W. T.

J. L.

---