
HEBO.

Pleasure seekers are again coming to the coast.

Crops are looking well and bees are doing remarkably well, considering the amount of rain we have this spring.

C. Landingham is doing some substantial work on his road this spring.

Brush slashing and log piling is the order of the day in this vicinity at present.

We are sorry to note the death of Lorenzo Willey who died on May the 8th after an illness of several months.

Everybody come to Woods on the 4th of July and listen to the toot of the Siwash horn.

J. Brock left for the Umpqua a few days ago, where he intends to reside in the future.

C. T. Bain is again on his ranch attending his bees.

H. H. Holloway has the congratulations of his friends on his hair breadth escape in an encounter with Cruse Polard a few days ago.

T. L.