Mr. Chase has his new house nearly.

Geo. Willey has moved onto his ranch.

The Rev. Barrett's family arrived from Denver, Cal. a few days ago.

N. G. Hansen has just returned from a trip to Salem and McMinnville.

Campers are still coming to the coast, regardless of rain and slippery roads.

L. Fleck has just completed his new barn, which is both substantial and commodious.

L. Jensen and A. D. Sanders have just made themselves a present of a new wagon each.

Salmon are not so plentiful in our bay as they were last fall, though the catch is increasing slowly.

School has again started at the Three Rivers school-house with Miss Lucy Dougherty as teacher.

Fine weather again after the rain, which did much good in other ways besides simply moistening our webs.
