

ORETOWN.

Frank Franklin has sold his place, situated on the south fork of the Little Nestucca river, and intends making his home in the city of Tillamook.

We understand from late report that Perry Harvey of Neskowin, has rented "John Rock place" and will make it his home.

Panthers are now making sad work of Mr. Hastings' lambs. For some reason this animal seems to be hard to exterminate, as six or eight have been killed during the past year, and still they come.

Miss Blanche Sturgeon, our school-teacher is to be a regular boarder at the Hotel de Christenson.

Mrs. J. R. Shaw, who has been quite is now almost entirely well again.
