Lee Commons has purchased the Oscar Faulconer place. Consideration, $1500.

Miss Doughty of Bay City is teaching at Meda.

Henry Page of Neskowin has moved into Mr. Brighams residence.

The latest question is "How about the Little Nestucca Bridge." This is easy to ask, but no one to answer. Rumor, however, claims that Krebs Bro. of Woods will receive the contract, their bid being $1600. Other reports say the contract will be given by the Court to a Portland Company who offer to build an Iron Bridge for the sum of $1950. This would, no doubt, be the best decision of the matter,

Frank Franklin will soon move to Netarts.

Sheep owners are now being troubled with buzzards, which bird, they claim, preys upon the young lambs.
