

ORETOWN.

Jesse Craven cut his foot across the instep very badly and for a time it was feared he would bleed to death, but is now much better.

Coasters are becoming numerous. Twenty wagons passed down the Little Nestucca beach July 8.

A. W. Fletcher is erecting a new dwelling house.

Several families have lately moved to Little Netucca and taken up claims in this vicinity.

J. W. Hellenbrand and wife have gone to Salem to attend a law-suit.

Mrs. Crocker and family are living in the house formerly owned by Mr. Bazley.

We understand that Mr. Baxter is sparing no expense in bridging and blasting, that his road may soon be in first-class condition.