

We have reliable information that Alvin Phelps of Woods, who disappeared a few months ago, made a visit to friends and relatives in the east, and the rumors of foul play are without foundation. Where he went after calling on his relatives is not known.