

WOODS.

I saw by your paper that Jasper Smith is reported as going to Mexico in the near future. This is a mistake, he says Tillamook is good enough for him. He wants to sell his farm but doesn't want to leave Tillamook, but intends buying property in Tillamook City and sending his children to school.

The debating club held their last meeting last night and adjourned until the first of November next.

The theatrical play at J. Smith's, last Thursday, was a success in every way, a dance occupied the balance of the night.

Lester and Elmer Smith have gone to Washington to spend the summer.

Plowing is the order of the day.

Some improvements such as fencing and building has been going on all winter.

Land buyers are all over the county, mostly from the East.

C. Upton is visiting at J. Smith's.
