

WOODS.

Dr. Linton's little girl is very low.

Jaspan Smith and family are visiting out in the Valley.

Quite a number of Yamhill citizens are recreating at this place at present.

The smallpox scare on Little Tucker has passed over; was a false alarm.

A large, fine deer came into town last Thursday and now adorns John Kreb's table.

R. T. Weatherly has moved his drugs into his new building. He now has a first-class drug store.

Mr. Bain and Mr. Peel and families have been here for the last six weeks. They start for their homes in Portland to day.

Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Wood are going to eastern Oregon and Washington on a visit. They expect to be gone six or eight week.

The fishermen of this place complain of, hard luck. The catch has been very light, and the late rains have stopped teaming and that means no market for fish.

Any one wishing to go into the merchandise business will do well to call on Mr. Findley, as he wishes to sell and retire on account of his health. This is certainly one of the best points for a general merchandise business in the county.